Our complaints policy

We are committed to providing a high quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong, we will do our best to rectify the problem as quickly as possible with minimal hassle to the client. Our aim is to continue to improve our standards.

What will happen next?

1. If you have reason to raise a complaint, please do so in writing, preferably by email, to Mr Costas Andrea, Client Care Partner – costas.andrea@andrealaw.co.uk
2. We will send you a letter within five days acknowledging your complaint. If appropriate, we may ask you to clarify or explain any details, and/or suggest a meeting at this stage.
3. We will record your complaint in our central register.
4. We will then investigate your complaint, examining the relevant file and speaking with members of staff, as appropriate.
5. If appropriate, we will then invite you to meet Mr Andrea, or to discuss the matter with him over the telephone with a view to resolving your complaint. We should be in a position to do this no longer than twenty-one days after first receiving your complaint.
6. Within two days of that discussion, we will write to you to confirm the discussion that took place and any suggestions or proposals that we have made or agreed with you to resolve the complaint.
7. If it is not convenient or appropriate to meet, or if we cannot arrange it within an acceptable timescale, Mr Andrea will write fully to you setting out his views on the situation and any suggestions we may have to resolve it. Again, we should be in a position to do this within twenty-one days of receiving your complaint.
8. If you are not satisfied with the conclusion of the complaint process, you have the right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman. In order for the Legal Ombudsman to consider your complaint, you must report it within six months from the conclusion of our internal complaints process.
